

NOTICE

This is to inform all concerned that the 9th Phase of disbursement to the depositors of Rose Valley Group has been completed by the Assets Disposal Committee (ADC).

However, the list of investors in respect of this phase could not be uploaded, as the official confirmation from the bank regarding the total number of transactions failed is still awaited. In response to successive letters, bank has informed of some technical glitches, due to which confirmation is delayed and awaited.

The list will be published immediately upon receipt of such confirmation from the bank.

All depositors are requested to kindly bear with us until then.
